Program Summary

The Public Allies Chicago program will have AmeriCorps members deliver a trauma-informed violence prevention curriculum to 400 youth aged 12 to 19 years old at 30 youth-serving host sites located in some of the most challenged areas of Chicago. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps Members will be responsible for increasing the knowledge of 300 youth in the areas of understanding of trauma and how it relates to violence, and assisting 100 youth in creating and delivering presentations to 1,000 of their peers around the effects of trauma. This program will focus on the CNCS focus area of safer communities.
